Date Received By Legal Office:	12/3/2010
Attorney Contact(s):	Margo Seabourn
Program Contact:	BNSD
Plaintiff(s):	Mable Wilson, Successor Trustee of the Alice Watson-Boyd Trust
Defendant(s):	CalPERS
Other Parties:	Joseph Boyd
Issues/Status:	Whether the Trust or the estranged husband of member should get her death benefits.
Potential Monetary Impact:	None, except for legal expenses, as CalPERS is only required to pay these benefits out once.

Name of Case (full name):	Rodriguez, Mariah & Nathan (by Timothy Mishler as Guardian Ad Litem) v. CalPERS (and other parties)
Date Received By Legal Office:	12/22/2010
Attorney Contact(s):	Rory Coffey
Program Contact:	BNSD
Plaintiff(s):	Timothy Mishler
Defendant(s):	Pittullo, Howington, Barker & Abernathy LLP, Sissy Barker, Fernando Rodriguez III, Vincent Landeros, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, and CalPERS
Other Parties:
Issues/Status:	CalPERS named in Third Amended Complaint by Timothy Mishler on behalf of 2 minor children (Mariah & Nathan) for declaratory relief. The children's father committed a murder/suicide, leaving them orphans. CalPERS paid death benefits to Richard and Yvonne Reyes under falsified documentation that they were the children's guardians entitled to receive this money. CalPERS was not named in original complaint, but children now seek the money that was erroneously paid to the Reyes.
Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.
